- The Selectmen asked Carol to have Melanie write a letter requesting what she thinks would be a fair increase in her pay as Registrar and they will discuss it at the next meeting on June 5th.

At 6:45 PM The Board of Selectmen announced that Robert Couture is their choice for the 2017 Spirit of America Foundation Honoring Volunteerism. The event was advertised in advance and 17 people in addition to the Selectmen and staff were in attendance. Mr. Couture has worked for many years for the LACO Food Bank and since his retirement has continued on as a volunteer without thought of sacrifices in his personal life. Marc Bernier, Chairman of the Selectmen presented him with an award. Several attendees spoke admirably about his service, Mr. Couture then thanked everyone and talked about his experiences with LACO and the many non-monetary rewards he has received over the years of his service. A light lunch was later served while everyone socialized. Mr.Couture will be honored by Sagadahoc County later in the year.

The Selectmen's meeting adjourned at 7:45 PM.
