Jim MacDonald from Lisbon EMS came into talk with Selectmen about maybe getting Sabattus, Greene and Wales along with Bowdoin and Lisbon together as a Regional Ambulance Service and use the second ambulance. Jim explained that is just in the very beginning stages, he wanted to let us know. He said that he would keep us up on date on any progress that was being made. Jim talked about maybe subcontracting for Northeast Ambulance Service.

The road Commissioner came in and he talked some about salt for next year. He also talked about the issues with beavers and overflow of culverts on E. Burrough Rd., and Academy Rd. He was contacted by the State that they had a person that worked and trained for handling the problems that keep occurring on these two roads. The man from the State and the Road Commissioner were going to meet the next day to discuss the problems.

The Selectmen had an interview with a candidate for the Treasurer's position.

Meeting adjourned at 8:00, Marc made the motion, Deb seconded it.
